

Nicos Aliprantis

Partner, Deca Investments AIFM

Nicos is a Partner in Deca Investments, an Alternative Investments Fund Manager established in Greece. Deca Investments manages Diorama Investments, a generalist growth capital private equity fund, which invests mainly in eligible Greek small and medium sized companies.

Nicos has more than 20 years of experience in the corporate and investment banking of Eurobank. He served as the head of the International Corporate Banking of Eurobank from 2008-2014 and as a Member of the Board of Directors of Eurobank Serbia, Postbank , Universal Bank, Eurobank Leasing ; he has also been member of the Senior Credit Committee of the Bank (for international credit).

His experience also includes serving from 2000-2005 as General Manager in Electroniki.

Nicos holds an MBA from NYU Stern School of Business and a BSc in Computing Science from Imperial College London. He is married and has 3 daughters.