

Emil Yiannopoulos FCA

Clients, Markets, Strategy, PwC Greece

Emil, Chartered Accountant (ICAEW), partner for over 22 years in PwC, formerly based in PwC London, established the Athens Deals and Transaction Advisory Services business in 1994. He has also served as PwC Financial Services industry leader (Banking and Insurance) and Audit Practice leader, working with blue chip clients across a wide variety of industries. He now focuses on working with PwC client teams across the firm to optimize value for PwC's clients. He has served over 12 years on the firm's Executive Committee.

Emil has advised on a wide range of investment and restructuring transactions in Greece, and in the surrounding region, on behalf of both Greek and international clients and investors with particular focus on banking (M&A and NPL) and on Private Equity transactions. He has also been lead audit engagement partner on some of the firm's largest and most complex clients including banking and shipping and other industries.

He is a regular public speaker on his business areas of expertise and on his "pet" subject of how to deal with uncertainty, volatility and risk for businesses and individuals.
